Notes for James Manzer:

Name Notes:

James Manzer the 1st

Sometime before 1635 one or more of the Manzer family went to England. On May 2, 1635 James Manzer, born 1608, sailed from England to the Barbados on the Alexander.

According to the records of immigration from England to Barbados, James Manzer, aged 27, did leave London aboard the Alexander on 2 May 1635. That information can be documented accurately due to the passenger lists.

He took part in the battle of Jamaica and family legend says he was given the right to use the family coat of arms for his part in the battle.

The British and Spanish were fighting in the islands in the 1650's and the Spanish officially surrendered control in 1655. Another part of the legend says he left after England started raising taxes in the islands.

In 1760 (+/-) when Britain raised the taxes in Barbados and Jamaica, the Manzers, along with many others, moved to Long Island to a place they named Jamaica."

In 1778 the Manzer property was located near what is now the Long Island end of the Brooklyn Bridge.

On July 5, 1778 five descendents of James Manzer joined the DeLancey Brigade, 2nd Battalion. They were Christopher, Barnet, Martin, Daniel and John. Christopher and Barnet later became Sergeants. All were single at this time except Barnet who was married to Mary Lester. The 2nd Battalion, was formed for the purpose of defending the property on Long Island. When it was transferred to Georgia, the Manzer boys transferred to the 3rd and continued their part of the war on Long Island. However, at the end of the war they went back to the 2nd and came with the 2nd to New Brunswick as United Empire Loyalists in 1783, with the exception of Daniel, who went to Stanstead in 1801. He married Nancy Davis.

Notes for Harris Watson Manser:
(Note by Wayne G. Manser)

Harris Manzer, was born with the surname spelled "Manzer". When he went westward in search of work, he had concerns that his name sounded too German (WWI cause people to be concerned about surnames), so he changed the spelling to "Manser", pronounced Man-sir. He found a job after doing this. No one really knows if his name was the issue in finding work, but he thought it did.

He found work, living in Jedore, Sask., as a hand on a fram crew. They went from farm to farm as required. Working on one of these farms, he met Isabella Marthe Bull. She was working off her debt that covered her fare from England. She was sponsored by a family and worked for them to repay the debt.

He married Isabella under his new surname spelling, so his descendants were all Manser's. Alan was born there, and Maynard & Russell were born later in Nova Scotia. There were suppose to have been 3 daughters born, but died in infancy. I believe they were born before Alan, as Alan was born 5 years after their marriage, but after is possible for one before they moved back to Nova Scotia. No names have ever been found. Just stories from dad saying he had 3 older sisters who were born & died out west before the family moved back to Nova Scotia.
