Notes for Ida May Manzer:

Death Notes:

1 Ingersoll Tribune (Ingersoll, Oxford County, Ontario, Canada). Surety: 4. DEATH NOTICE: MRS. IDA MAY DAVIS PASSES AFTER BRIEF ILLNESS A widely known resident of West Oxford [township], Mrs. Ida May Davis, widow of James I. Davis, passed away at Alexandra Hospital, on Saturday evening. She had been seriously ill about a month and was in her 69th year. For many years Mrs. Davis was a well known vendor at the Ingersoll market and for the past year she had been engaged at war work at Woodstock. Born in West Oxford [township], she had been a lifelong resident of the district and had made for herself a large circle of friends who deeply regret her passing. Left to mourn her passing are two sons, Clarence of Ayr, and Ewart at home; two brothers, James and George Manzer, of Woodstock; and two sisters, Mrs. Clara Budd, West Oxford [township]; and Mrs. Willard Thomas, Ingersoll. The funeral was held from the Fred S. Newman Funeral Home, on Tuesday afternoon with service at 2:30 o'clock conducted by Rev. David Alexander of Salford. There was a large attendance of friends and relatives at the service, and the beautiful floral tributes also testified to the esteem in which deceased was held. Temporary entombment took place at the Ingersoll Mausoleum. The pallbearers were Verne Budd, Wilbur Budd, Albert Budd, Wesley Cuthbert, George Thomas and George Witty.

BUDD DIES IN 95TH YEAR In failing health for the past month and seriously ill for three weeks, Mrs. Arthur James Budd passed away at the family residence, Lot 10, Concession 4, West Oxford [township], Wednesday morning. Born in Sweaburg, the former Clarissa Jane [Clara] Manzer, Mrs. Budd was in her 95th year, and was a daughter of the late John and Hannah Manzer. 'Grandma' Budd as she was affectionately called, had spent her entire life in the district and had always taken an active interest in all community affairs and her kindly and unassuming nature had endeared her to all with whom she came in contact. She was also very well known at Folden's Corners. She had been a member of the West Oxford Women's Institute since it's inception also a member of the Folden's Corners United Church and a very active member of the Women's Association of that church. Mrs. Budd had been actively interested in quilting, sewing and knitting and many friends in the community have been recipients of her generosity in regards to specimens of her splendid work. Her husband predeceased her in 1926. Left to mourn the passing of a dearly beloved mother are 9 children; five sons, Albert and Wilbur, West Oxford [township]; Verne, on the homestead; Harry, Blandford [township]; and Frank in Detroit; four daughters, Miss Ethel Budd in Detroit; Mrs. Edith Cuthbert, Ingersoll; Mrs. George Witty [Edna], Folden's Corners; Mrs. Beth Barrett [Mabel], Beachville. Also surviving are one sister, Mrs. Ada Thomas, Ingersoll; 14 grandchildren, and 29 great-grandchildren. Mrs. Budd is resting at the Walker and Clifton Funeral Home, 88 King St. W., Ingersoll, where service will be held on Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock with Rev. S. R. Cooper officiating. Interment will be made in the Harris Street Cemetery.

Generation 4 (con't)

BY DEATH The community was saddened on Thursday last by the announcement of the death at an early hour on Thursday morning, July 12th, of Councilor Wesley Emmerson Manzer, a lifelong resident of the Ingersoll district, who for two years served this community as it's chief magistrate. The news of Ex-Mayor Manzer's death came as a distinct shock to his wide circle of friends, many of whom were unaware of the seriousness of his illness. Mr. Manzer had been confined to his home for some weeks past. His condition during that time had fluctuated considerably and the general seriousness of its nature was intimated only by those closer to him. Some 4 years ago he underwent a very serious operation in London, and for days at that time his life was despaired of. Deceased who was in his 65th year, was born in West Oxford [township], and had spent his entire life in and adjacent to Ingersoll. Because of his long term of residence in the district, as well as on account of his many years in public life in Ingersoll, he was very widely known. In the passing of Mr. Manzer, Ingersoll has lost a public spirited resident of the fine quality and traits. He gave most generously of his time and talents to a community where his interests were centred and for which he had a great love. He first served on the municipal council in the years 1911-1912. After an absence from council ranks of some years, he came back again in 1926. During that year as well as in 1927-28, he saw varied types of council service. In 1929, he was chosen for the mayor's chair. He was mayor also in 1930 by acclamation, the year of his first serious illness. He left council work for the year 1931, but was again elected in 1932, continuing in that capacity up to and including the present year. During all these varied terms of council work, he was ready and willing to accept any office within the giving of his colleagues. The amount of labour or time involved in the chairmanship of any committee never caused him to hesitate or to quibble. As a further indication of this, it may be stated that he was chairman of the board of works this year, that being one of the heavy committees of council work. He had held the same chairmanship on previous occasions. Deceased had been engaged in numerous business pursuits. He had farmed for some years. He had also been engaged in a business venture of his own here a number of years ago, and had also given considerable of his time to salesmanship. He had also been active in local real estate matters. He was always ready to pit his chances and his judgement against the future. A number of fine properties in Ingersoll are tributes to his progressive foresight. A member of Trinity United Church, deceased was one of it's most willing servants. He had given generously of his time here also. For some years he was chairman of the property committee. He was also a member of the board of stewards and of the quarterly official board. He had also represented his church at varied church councils and while health permitted was a regular attendant at all church services. Besides the widow, he is survived by two sons and two daughters, as follows: Mrs. James Miller, Ingersoll; Murray, London; Miss Lena[?], and Leo, at home. Two brothers and four sisters also survive in the persons of James and George, Woodstock; Mrs. I. J. Davis, Folden's Corners; Mrs. A. J. Budd, Folden's Corners; Mrs. Arthur Thomas, Zenda; Mrs. W. J. Thomas, Ingersoll. With an exceptionally large following of relatives and friends, and a profusion of floral tributes, the funeral of Councilor Wesley E. Manzer, was held from the family residence, Canterbury St., on Saturday afternoon to the Ingersoll Mausoleum, where entombment took place. Service was conducted at 2:30 p.m. by Rev. Dr. J. George Miller of Trinity United Church and Rev. Don Cameron of the Ingersoll Baptist Church. During the service a solo was given by Rev. Cameron accompanied at the piano by Mrs. W. A. Elliott. Mayor J. M. Wilson and his council attended in a body, as did the Ingersoll Fire Department, with draped equipment. There were representatives of the Ingersoll Public Utilities Commission, the Board of Education and other civic bodies in attendance. P. M. Dewan of Woodstock, MLA elect for Oxford and Alderman James Saunders represented the Woodstock City Council. Representatives of Ingersoll Branch of the Canadian Legion, were also present. Merchants of the town, as an outward sign of respect, closed their places of business and removed displays from the sidewalks from 2 to 4 p.m.. Highway Traffic Officers Jillings and Logan, headed the funeral cortege through the business section of the town. The pallbearers were Major J. M. Wilson, Henry Avery, Woodstock, a former member of the Ingersoll Council; Sheriff William McGee, Woodstock; Ex-Mayor S. E. Brady, Councilor S. L. Shelton and W. J. Tune. The honorary members were: Hon. Donald Sutherland; E. Dodge; ex-Mayor James E. Fergusson; ex-Councilor N. J. Daniel, George Mitchell and James Little.

Notes for Harris Watson Manser:

(Note by Wayne G. Manser)

Harris is the one who changed the family name spelling from Manzer to Manser.

He was looking for work and his name "Manzer" sounded too German, so he changed it to get work on farms in western Canada. It was never changed back as he met & married my grandmother while using that spelling.

There were 6 children, the 3 girls died at birth and best I can tell were never named.
